Notes:

¹ All transaction types include: inter-account transfers, priority payments, Eurozone payments, bill payments and time deposit management.

² File Upload refers to the ability to transmit bulk payment instructions to the Bank, typically for salary payments.

³ Report Writer gives you the ability to create customised reports and with Automated File Delivery you will be able to receive them in your inbox on the day and at the time that you need them.

⁴ Receivable Finance refers to our invoice discounting functionality.

⁵ Internet Trade Services gives you the ability to perform import/export related transactions and enquiries.

⁶ Accounts refer to current and savings transactional accounts that are used for receipts and payments, and do not include fixed term deposit accounts, loan accounts or credit card accounts.
